

PLANNING CAMPAIGN

#WHOCIS Killing THEM

October

- 26 Zoom meeting with interested partners where we welcome ideas, questions, help for the campaign
- ☉ Let us know if you would like to participate!

November

- 1 Launch of a facebook frame of the campaign to use in profile pictures
- ☉ We invite partners and activists to use the facebook frame to raise awareness
- 12 Online event called 'Arepas' where a Colombian activist will teach how to make traditional arepas while she talks about the current situation for environmental defenders in Colombia.
- ☉ You can participate and share the event.
- 16-21 The campaign takes to social media and we will be publishing daily images, infographics, reports and videos to inform and raise awareness.
- ☉ You can help us share on your social media accounts and send us information or images, videos, articles we can share.
- 21N Action in Brussels a year after the national strike in Colombia: We will organize a gathering in Brussels to demand peace and justice in Colombia. The idea is to do a creative action and for that we need the help of other organisations. (Of course always in agreement with the covid measures and restrictions)
- ☉ You could help to co-organise the action, come with ideas on what we could do to ensure an impactful action

December

January

Human Rights day, start second social media week 10-12

We will create a mural in Brussels for the campaign together with art collectives.

- ☉ You can help spread awareness about the mural and help organise.

18-21 Third social media week

We will add more online activities of which we will inform you when they are planned and we also invite you to organise or add any of your own activities within the same theme to the campaign.
